Accredited Supervision Course

Do you want to advance your mediation career by training as a professional supervisor?

Training as an accredited supervisor gives you the opportunity to turn your experience into a paid professional service.

Becoming a Professional Practice Consultant (PPC) is the natural next step for experienced mediators who want to deepen their impact, support others to practise ethically and confidently, and expand their professional portfolio.

As a PPC, you will:

- Provide reflective supervision to mediators and trainees.
- Support ethical judgement, resilience, and safe practice.
- Balance support, challenge, and accountability.
- Work across SEND, workplace, neighbourhood, and civil mediation.

Programme overview:

A high-quality PPC training programme delivered virtually across two interactive days.

Day 1 Monday 23 March 2026 | 9am–5pm | Live on Zoom

Day 2 Monday 13 April 2026 | 9am–5pm | Live on Zoom

Applicants must be fully accredited mediators, with current experience and evidence of good practice, and a clear understanding of supervision, ethics, safeguarding, and reflective practice.
